We Plow the Fields and Scatter

- 1 We plow the fields and scatter
the good seed on the land,
but it is fed and watered
by God's almighty hand,
who sends the snow in winter,
the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes and the sunshine,
and soft refreshing rain.

Refrain

All good gifts around us are sent from heav'n above.
We thank you, Lord,
we thank you, Lord,
for all your love.

Text: Matthias Claudius, 1740-1815; tr. Jane M. Campbell, 1817-1878, alt.

As Rain from the Clouds

- 1 As rain from the clouds will your word come to earth,
as snow from the heavens refreshing the land.
Then soften our soil that the good seed may grow and ripen rich fruit to return to your hand.
We praise you, our God, for the dew of your word;
we thank you, good gard'ner, for your tender toil.
We bless you, best farmer, for hundredfold yield,
for harvest of grace in our once-barren soil.

On What Has Now Been Sown

- 1 On what has now been sown
your blessing, Lord, bestow;
the pow'r is yours alone
to make it sprout and grow.
O Lord, in grace the harvest raise,
and yours alone shall be the praise!

Text: John Newton, 1725-1807, alt.

Welcome to Parking Lot Worship at Good Shepherd!

Please turn your radio to FM 90.5.

If you have a prayer request, please fill out the index card in this bag and give to an usher.

In this bag you will find:

- bulletin
- index card (you may use for prayer request)
- communion set
- sharing of the peace postcard

The sharing of the peace postcard is for you to share the peace of Christ to anybody you wish. (ex. home-bound members, nursing home residents, your family or friends.) Just write down their address and put in the mail.

Thank you for joining our service today.

Instruction for Communion

Communion is a way that we experience God's unconditional love for us. Communion is celebrated in worship.

If you would like to have communion this morning, you will take part in communion liturgy.

If you decide not to have communion this morning, please take the wafer and juice home and pour them over on the ground so that they will return to the earth.

Thank you.
