“Be Thou My Vision” (ELW #793)

- 1 Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save
that thou art:
thou my best thought both by day and by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Text: Irish, 8th cent.; vers. Eleanor H. Hull, 1860-1935, alt.; tr. Mary E. Byrne, 1880-1931

“God of Grace and God of Glory” (ELW #705)

- 1 God of grace and God of glory,
on your people pour your pow'r;
crown your ancient church's story;
bring its bud to glorious flow'r.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage
for the facing of this hour,
for the facing of this hour.

Text: Harry E. Fosdick, 1878-1969

“God Who Stretched the Spangled Heavens” (ELW #771)

- 1 God, who stretched the spangled heavens
infinite in time and place,
flung the suns in burning radiance
through the silent fields of space:
we, your children in your likeness,
share inventive pow'rs with you;
great Creator, still creating,
show us what we yet may do.

In this bag you will find:

-bulletin

-index card (you may use for prayer request)

-communion set

-sharing of the peace postcard

-a puzzle piece

The sharing of the peace postcard is for you to share the peace of Christ to anybody you wish. (ex. homebound members, nursing home residents, your family or friends.) Just write down their address and put in the mail.

Thank you for joining our service today.

Instruction for Communion

Communion is a way that we experience God's unconditional love for us. Communion is celebrated in worship.

If you would like to have communion this morning, you will take part in communion liturgy.

If you decide not to have communion this morning, please take the wafer and juice home and pour them over on the ground so that they will return to the earth.
